DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The ingredients of the sublingual pharmaceutical formulation used in the method of administering.

First Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect the FANS agent present. Examples of acceptable species can be found in claim 13.

Second Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect if the absence or presence of a water soluble excipient, a crystalline water insoluble excipient with a disintegrating function in the sublingual pharmaceutical formulation. If the presence of such an ingredient is elected, Applicant is further required to a specific excipient. Examples of such species can be found in claims 15 and 16.

Third Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect the absence or presence of a lubricant in the sublingual pharmaceutical formulation.

Fourth Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect the absence or presence of a sweetener in the sublingual pharmaceutical formulation.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the FANS agent may share a common function but do not share a common structure. The presence of additional ingredients may alter the properties of the sublingual formulation, such as the presence of water soluble excipient that has a disintegrating function.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
